Fox of Pittsburgh, and the main address will be given by a gentleman from Chicago. Labor will have its inning in the splendid demonstration here, and Charleroi will be filled with people.

Charleroi Post No. 22 of the American Legion has taken up this system, already inaugurated in the city of Pittsburgh, Greensburg, Uniontown, and Connellsville. Residents of the borough who have seen the system, have been anxious and desirous of its installation here. See any of the American Legion boys, or, if you wish, mail your orders to Walter Pieper, 712 Crest avenue.

Court Ends First Week Of Trials

The first week of the August term of criminal court came to a close yesterday afternoon and court was adjourned until Tuesday at 9 a. m., when the second week's list will be heard. Pleaders, continuances and settlements reduced considerably this week the number of cases for trial. Few prosecutions for violations of the liquor laws came to trial, the defendants entering pleas of guilty.

Among the cases were the following:

The case of the commonwealth against Paul Milovich, Steve Stantalok and Carl Stantalok of the Bentleyville section, indicted for a double homicide at Bentleyville, has been continued to the November term. Attorney Harry F. Moore represents the defendants. He has not been well, but is now improving and expects to take up his court work again at the November term.

The case of the commonwealth against A. J. O'Donnell, indicted for misappropriation of funds as treasurer of the Union Trust Co. of Donora, has also been continued until the November term.

Sentence was suspended yesterday in the cases of the commonwealth against John Chony, alias John Csorni alias John Charnyi, and Anna Pribik alias Anna Kiosky, of Charleroi, who were charged with unlawfully living together. The woman's husband is dead and the man's wife is separated from him. He and the woman have been living together for some time, but have not been married. Chony is willing to support the woman and their child. The court told him that until he had a divorce and was legally married to the woman, they must not live together.

Recognizances were forfeited yesterday in the cases of the commonwealth against Vincent Vania, of Eldersville, and Joseph Kachala of Charleroi, indicted for violations of the liquor laws.

VAUDEVILLE SEASON OPENS AT THE PALACE, MONDAY, SEPT. 1.

Everything is in readiness at the cozy Palace Theatre for its opening Monday, September 1, matinee and night, with an exceptional Vaudeville and Photoplay attraction. The entire Vaudeville offering comes to the Palace direct from Pittsburgh's foremost vaudeville theatres, and Manager Harry Barnhart feels confident that the vaudeville and feature photoplay booked for the opening will meet with the approval of the hundreds that will be in attendance. Supporting the vaudeville the patrons will have an opportunity of witnessing one of the season's finest photoplay productions, "The Unknown Purple," starring Henry Walthall, Stuart Holmes, Alice Lake, and many other celebrities. This production, it can be truthfully be said, is one of the most unusual mystery dramas, packed to the limit with ingenious complements of thrills, romance and cleverly devised suspense, and as the shadowy, mysterious characters creep from scene to scene, you'll grip the arms of your chair, and feel the tenseness of the situations with the players, and when the purple haze appears, that mysterious light which makes those who carry it invisible, you'll be thrilled beyond expectation. The Unknown Purple, truly is a wonderful picture, one of the finest that has played the Palace. 74t1*

Official Is Freed Of A Grave Charge

Yesterday afternoon before Alderman John F. Carmichael of Washington, Mike Humenik, postmaster at Slovan, was discharged for alleged connection with the explosion which destroyed the home of Justice Henry Tennyson.

The hearing was a brief one, there being no witnesses against Humenik. It developed that the information against him was made on information received from a barber at Slovan and he was not put in an appearance at the hearing, although subpoenaed to do so. There being absolutely no grounds for holding the man, he was discharged.

Although Humenik was discharged at the hearing, he was not released from custody, he having been sentenced by Judge Edwin Cummins to serve six months in the Allegheny County workhouse on his conviction last November of wantonly pointing firearms. At the time the verdict was returned in the case, in which Justice Tennyson was the private prosecutor, Humenik was sentenced to pay the costs and a fine.

After his arrest in connection with the dynamiting of the Tennyson home on motion of the district attorney, he was taken into court and the workhouse sentence imposed, his imprisonment to begin with his actual commitment to that institution.

Application will be made at the meeting of the state board of pardons at Harrisburg on September 17 for his pardon. Formal action to take the case before the pardon board has been taken by C. L. V. Acheson, Harry F. Moore, and Meyer Goldfarb, his attorneys.

The plight of Humenik, who has been an efficient postmaster at Slovan, has elicited the sympathy of his many friends. It is felt in the Slovan section and by others who are familiar with the circumstances surrounding the case that he is a victim of circumstances. He has been a resident of Slovan for many years and has never been in trouble before.

TRAFFIC DELAYED BY AN ACCIDENT

Street Car Leaves Rails At Monongahela Yesterday Afternoon — Interurban Car Crashes Into Side of Dwelling

NONE IS BADLY HURT

One Woman Is Slightly Injured —Worn And Faulty Rail Is Believed to Have Been Cause of the Accident—Damage Is Quite Large. From Reports

Street car traffic was delayed and impeded on the lines of the Pittsburgh Street Railways Company yesterday afternoon: an accident occurred in which one woman was slightly hurt and a score of passengers narrowly escaped injury when the rear truck of an interurban car left the tracks at Cemetery street, Monongahela, and tore along the street for 20 feet and after bounding across the pavement came to a stop after the rear of the car crashed into the side of a brick structure at 310 East Main street.

High tension and telephone wires were torn down by the careening car and Monongahela and the surrounding vicinity were without electric power for several hours. The entire rear portion of the car was demolished when it crashed into a telephone pole and the brick house, which stands flush with the pavement only a few feet from the car tracks. A worn and faulty rail joint is believed the cause of the accident. The side of the demolished car with windows broken and glass scattered along the interior of the car, rested against a high tension pole and the dwelling, while the front of the car projected across the street in such a way that the inbound cars could not pass and it was necessary to transfer passengers until the car could be moved. The motorman of the car did not have to stop at Cemetery street and was traveling at a good rate of speed when the wheels left the rail. A number of passengers in the car were seated forward and no one was riding at the rear of the car when the crash occurred. A woman who had paid her fare to Nelson street from downtown suffered cuts and injuries about the face when she was thrown against a seat. She went to a nearby residence and after receiving first aid treatment was taken home. Her name was not obtained. A dozen or more passengers on the car were badly shaken by the impact but aside from slight bruises and cuts no one was seriously injured.

One way traffic was established and a force of policemen placed along the street to direct traffic while linemen of the West Penn Power company and the transit company were soon at work making repairs. The damage will be large owing to the damage to the dwelling and the street as well as to the car.

TWO PICTURES OF THE PRINCE OF WALES WHO TODAY IS THE GUEST OF MR. AND MRS. COOLIDGE AT WHITE HOUSE

Syosset, Long Island, August 30.—The Prince of Wales' predeliction for athletics and the early rising entailed stood him in good stead today, for His Royal Highness was up betimes and off to Washington before the dew had died on the sweeping lawns of the Burden estate where he spent the first night of this, his second visit to the United States.

Upward Swing Indicated In The Industrial World, Says Authority

Harrisburg, August 30.—Twice the number of men were given jobs at the request of employers this time a year ago than today, according to a summary of general employment conditions made by a competent authority for the United Press.

However, more men were placed at gainful occupations in Pennsylvania during the past month, than were placed into employment the previous month, indicating an upward swing toward industrial revival.

The survey of conditions discloses that:

1. There is less labor turnover and unemployment now than at this time last year. But it was easier to get a job a year ago than now.

2. Fewer women have been forced into employment due to economic conditions of the family.

3. The number sought for positions fell off sixty per cent during the year.

4. Mining is the only industry that has not responded to the general improvement in conditions.

A notable factor in the comparison with last year's conditions is that more men were out of work a year ago than now. The decrease in job hunters was something like 40 per cent from last year's figures.

However, employers have shown an unwillingness to increase their forces until this month when a spurt amounting to a 17 per cent increase in their requests for help was noted.

At the same time, applicants for jobs increased 15 per cent. The improvement, therefore, is slight, but it has been reported as steadily gaining momentum.

SCHOOLS' OPENING.

In the early fall if there are any two propositions above others that are of interest to the people of the borough and contiguous vicinity, it is that of the opening of public schools and what may not be inaptly termed their correlative, football.

The Charleroi Public schools open for the fall and winter season next Monday, September 1. Instructors and students alike have enjoyed a long vacation, and will doubtless resume their work willing to give of their best efforts Superintendent Thomas L. Pollock anticipates one of the most successful school years in the history of the local schools; and there is no reason why every school year shouldn't prove to be better than its predecessor. Nowadays, the instructors and the students, as well, if they feel so inclined, can take amplified instruction during the vacation season, and many of them embrace the opportunities thus afforded. Thus, when the schools open in the fall, finds both instructors and students better prepared for the duties which before them lie.

It is particularly gratifying to note that the new building in Meadow avenue and Fourth street will be ready for occupancy on Monday. This structure has 16 class rooms and a modern gymnasium, and 525 Seventh and Eighth grade boys and girls will receive their instruction here by 11 teachers. Every room will be in use but two. Thus the congested conditions which have existed in the grade schools will be relieved, a proposition which must bring the utmost of satisfaction to the taxpayers and patrons of the schools, not to mention Prof. Pollock and his corps of teachers. Provisions have been made for the largest enrollment in the history of the schools.

Encouragement can be given both the students and their instructors if people will visit the schools. It appeals to us that there has been dereliction in this regard. This should not be; show your interest and sympathy in the schools by visiting them as often as permissible. Teachers and students will know by this overt act that you are interested in them, and interested in the success of the schools—the citadels on which the foundations of government rest.

DEMARCO'S DEFEAT.

Irrespective of whther all people of Charleroi and vicinity are boxing fans, everybody is an admirer of Cuddy DeMarco and have rejoiced with him in his victories as an exponent of the manly art. Naturally, they regretted exceedingly, when the morning papers of yesterday chronicled his defeat in a bout in New York.

DeMarco's continued successes led folk to think that he was invincible in his class; but boxing is liken to any other kind of sport, defeat must inevitably follow in the rugged road which leads to success There is no royal highway to boxing supremacy, each and every aspirant must pursue his course as Fate dictates.

However, Cuddy has no reason to feel discouraged, for in defeat he will probably rise to greater achievements in that he will train even more carefully and box even more cautiously when meeting formidable opponents. DeMarco's defeat will mean that greater effort will be made by him to climb the heights of fistianic achievement, now that he has slipped a short distance when the coveted goal of supremacy seemed easily in sight.

When our round-the-world fliers reach Greenland's icy mountains they may think better of India's coral strands, however overheated.

The news comes from Paris that after the American advertisers and lawyers had dined at the Elysee the caretaker of the palace found that 47 spoons were missing. Has the "souvenir" grabbing mania really gone as far as that?

THE OFFICE CAT

A good real estate salesman is one who can draw such an alluring picture of a suburban bungalow that even a confirmed bachelor will be inspired to go right out next morning, and look for a garden rake and a wife.

The only son had just announced his engagement to his family.

What? That girl! The squints! remarked his mother.

She has absolutely no style, added his sister.

Red-headed, isn't she? queried his aunt.

She's fiqety, said Grandma.

She hasn't any money, put in his uncle.

She doesn't look strong, exclaimed his first cousin.

She's stuck up! asserted his second cousin.

She's an extravagant thing! interrupted his third cousin.

Well, she has one redeeming feature, said the son thoughtfully.

And what's that? asked the family in chorus.

She hasn't any relations, was the quiet reply.

Some men are born golfers and some never can pick up a good alibi.

The doctor opened the door of his waiting room and looked at the line of waiting patients and asked: Who has been waiting the longest?

I have, spoke up one individual very promptly. I'm the garage man who fixed up your car about four months ago.

Nobody on earth knows as much as a telephone girl in a small town.

Farmer (to train caller): What do you do?

Train Caller: I call trains.

Farmer: Well, call me one, I'm in a hurry.

If he's the kind of chap Dad will trust, daughter probably calls him a dud.

There was a young man from Golong,
Who was captured by Chinks in Hong Kong.
When held for a ransom,
He paid very handsome.
Now he's teaching New Yorkers Mah Jong.

Made Love While Insane. Heavens, exclaims a Monessen chap, they can't put you in jail for that, can they?

The loudest patriots invariably are those who are willing to have you die for their country.

We suppose the men have quit wearing garters because they feel that the women will follow suit.

We noticed, tacked on the wall of a Charleroi restaurant, recently, a sheet of paper on which was painted in bold characters:

"The umbrella in the stand belongs to the heavyweight champion of the world. He is coming back."

Five minutes later umbrella and paper had disappeared. In their place was another notice:

"Umbrella is now in the possession of the champion Marathon runner of the world. He is not coming back."

Faith can move mountains—when coupled with work.

A Charleroi man tells a story of a trusting husband who ate a paper plate in which his wife had served a pie, thinking it was the lower crust.

The sad thing about having a wife, muses a Missouri exchange, is when you look for something it has been hung up somewhere.

"ARIZONA EXPRESS" COMES TO THE MAJESTIC MONDAY

We have always had an idea that the motion picture screen as a medium for the expression of melodrama was ideal. Its limitless physical possibilities was the chief basis for this belief. When we saw "The Eleventh Hour" Lincoln J. Carter's first cinematic effort our convictions took deeper root Now comes "The Arizona Express," the second screen story from the pen of the King of Melodrama, which will begin a two days' engagement next Monday and Tuesday at the Majestic theatre.

"The Arizona Express" is an unfusion of thrilling sequences that will keep you on the edge of your seat for an hour and a half. It will take you back to the good old days when, amid a floor strewn with peanut shells, you sat up in the pit in open eyed amazement as the hero arrived at the railroad trestle in the nick of time and saved the beautiful heroine from the terrible death to which she had been assigned by the walrus locking villain in big boots and a sombrero.

MANY BIG SPORTING EVENTS FEATURE LABOR DAY HERE

Two Local Boys in Big Fight at Ball Park in The Evening.

Arrangements for the big boxing tourney to be held at the Charleroi Baseball park on the evening of Labor day are completed. Those having the mills in charge expect reasonably, when the stellar nature of the general card is taken into consideration, the largest crowd ever entering the gates of the park: and they have made their plans accordingly. The most commendable feature is the new arrangement of the ring, which has been placed against the amphitheatre, thus affording a better view from the be seated just outside the enclosure proper, the timekeeper and judges. The first five rows of seats are called the ringside seats, and afford the clearest insight into the various bouts, round by round of the contestants: the balance of the seats will be park, will be $1.10; grandstand $1.65; grandstand reserved, $2.20.

The main bout brings together two of the best bantams in the state, "Bricky" Ryan, Red Mason's well-known bantam star, vs. Tony Norman, Pittsburgh's classy bantam, whose bouts with Champion Villa and Genaro have made him famous throughout the sporting world. In the semi-final, Willie Davis, the flashy little Welshman, meets Hughey Munson of Homestead, in what looks like a close rival to the main bout in interest. The second bout will feature two middleweights, "Boss" Biesencamp of Lock No. 4, and Joe Naisel, Monessen's "punching policeman." In the opening bout, Davie Davis of Roscoe, meets Young Ruddy of Charleroi. Taken all in all this looks by far the best card to be offered the local fans.

NORMAN-PORTO IN A DRAW BATTLE AT JOHNSTOWN

A rattling good draw between two of the classiest bantamweights to perform in Johnstown for some time, and two knockouts, one of which climaxed in a heated argument, were the high lights of the fine fistic program presented by the Crystal Beach A. A. last night. Tapering off the show was a classy exhibition between Tony Norman of Pittsburgh and Frank Porto of Louisville, Ky., the judges agreeing on a draw at the conclusion of 10 rounds of heated milling.

Porto appeared to have a slight edge on his sagacious opponent so slight that it came in for little consideration in deciding the outcome. He carried five of the rounds with four going to Norman and one even Starting off at a furious clip, the clever little scrappers continued to mix it at a breakneck pace throughout, and were going as strong as ever at the final gong. At long range Norman had a decided edge, but the Southern lad more than offset this advantage at close quarters. His rushing tactics and incessant swinging of gloves delighted the fans.

The semi-windup was the most hectic scrap of the night, ending in a knockout victory for Buzz Buckrop of Nant-y-Glo over Freddie Shaffer of McKeesport, a weird style swinger. Shaffer was an easy mark for Buckrop's stinging blows in the first round and two minutes and 58 seconds after the start of the second stanza he was sprawled on the canvas.

Cinder Goines, of Johnstown, was awarded a popular decision over Mike Fedorsik of Donora, in a six round tussle. Goines carried five rounds, the third being even. Bobby Amster showed to good advantage in his first bout since locating in Johnstown. He kayoed Johnny Walcott of Pittsburgh in the fifth round of the opener, terminating a merry battle.

Norman is on the card here Monday, meeting Bricky Ryan.

COLUMBUS FANS HISS WHEN BRITTEN GIVEN DECISION OVER FAY

Charlie Jones, manager of Harry Fay, sends us a clipping taken from the Louisville, Ky. Times, that paper's special service. The clipping is as follows:

"Columbus, Ohio, ug. 26—Billy Britton of Kansas was awarded a referee's decision over Harry Fay, Louisville lightweight, in a twelve-round main go at the Fairmont club here last night, much to the consternation of the fans. The decision was hissed for thirty minutes following the action. According to the press Fay carried nine of the twelve rounds and Britton would have been lucky to get a draw."

DOWN GO THE REDS IN GAME WITH PITTSBURGH CLUB

John Dewey Morrison charmed 4,500 fans and forced the Reds to inhale great rings of gloom yesterday at Forbes Field when he responded to a hurry-up call to do the rescue act, by pitching hitless and runless ball from the moment he relieved Lee Meadows early in the fifth inning until the close of hostilities. This is not all the Kentucky curve specialist accomplished, for he pasted one of Big Tom Sheehan's benders for a two-bagger that started a short but thrilling rally which gave the Buccaneers a 5:4 victory, the winning point being pounded across by Captain Maxwell Carnarius with only one killed off in the ninth.

As a glorious sequel to the Corsair conquest over one of their most atrocious tormentors, came the tidings from Brooklyn that the Dodgers had succeeded in shoving their way from the rear ranks and flopping the New York Giants. This tiny deed of kindness on the part of the Flatbush fellows, combined with what happened in Pittsburgh, causes a shrinkage in the fearful gap that separates Bill McKechnie's low, rakish craft from the front of the flag chase. The league leaders this morning are exactly four games ahead of their nearest and most hostile foes—the Pirates.

Glenn Wright is entitled to a diamond-studded tiora for a round-trip wallop he flattened out in the opening chapter, on which two of his playmates romped over the rug before him. Without that circuit-girdler, this story would have been a dirge of the most doleful nature.

Homestead Grays Play Two Games With Charleroi Team

The Homestead Grays will be the attraction at the Charleroi Baseball park on Monday, Labor day, for two games, in the morning at 10:45 o'clock and the afternoon at 3 o'clock. Beatty and Latriam will be in the paints for Charleroi, and the locals' old Nemesis, Owens, and Young will do the sharpshooting for the colored boys. These two contests will doubtless draw the largest crowds of the season.

Manager Mathers has made arrangements to take care of an overflow crowd. He will play the regular lineup of the locals, and hopes to land at least one of the games.

YOUNG CARMEN IN HIS BATTLE WITH JORDAN IN CALIFORNIA

The Mail is in receipt of a likeness of Young Carmen, formerly of Charleroi, and Johnny Jordan, who recently met at Vernon, Cal. A clipping is appended to the likeness, and reads as follows:

"Young Carmen, the busy San Jose lightweight, began pummaging Johnny Jordan in the first round of the semi-windup, continued it in the second, lost out in the third and held Johnny even in the fourth, for which he got himself a draw. Carmen fought hardest when Jordan managed to sting him, and had Johnny done more stinging the bout would doubtless have taken the honors even from the main event.

"Both Carmen and Jordan fought more carefully after the second round but it was one bout in which the clinching did not grow tiresome because both kept busy and punched hard and snappily. Carmen should do better in his next start."

CARS ENTERED FOR LABOR DAY RACE AT ALTOONA

Altoona, Pa., August 30—All of the fourteen cars entered for the Labor Day race have qualified; all went far above the 105 miles required for entry, and as a result the drivers will loaf today and tomorrow.

The Pennsylvania railroad has added three extra shuttle trains between this city and the speedway to accommodate the crowd expected, besides running special trains from the east and west, as well as stopping all trains at the track.

Speedway officials expect the attendance to cross the 100,000 mark, the interest having been increased because of the expectation of record smashing.

Two troops of Boy Scouts will on Sunday, take up their positions at Mill Creek, Huntingdon county, which place the Pennsylvaia's motor federation has characterized as "worse than a speed trap—stay away or walk through" in order that tourists coming to the races on Monday may be protected.

41 BREWERY OWNERS CHARGED BREAKING DRY LAW

Philadelphia, August 30—In an effort to stop the flood of high-powered beer in Eastern Pennsylvania, Assistant United States Attorney Anderhon has issued 41 warrants against owners and officials of 10 breweries here charging violations of the prohibition laws. The persons upon whom the warrants were served were held under $5,000 bail each for a hearing September 3. Anderson announced that additional warrants will be issued against brewery heads in the eastern part of the state today.

The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of dark brown satin crepe and cream lace with hat to match. Mrs. Thomas is one of Charleroi's most popular and charming young ladies. She is a graduate of the Charleroi High School and for the past three years has been a teacher of music. Mr. Thomas is a graduate of the Monessen high school and a State College man. After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parens, the young couple left for Cresson where Mr. Thomas has accepted a position as Mathematics teacher and Coach in the Cresson High School and where they will make their future home.

Value—

The Main Thing Rickenbacker Has to Offer!

That's precisely what every shrewd buyer is after. He wants value—excess value, for the very least amount of money. That, and only that, is found in every Rickenbacker ever built.

Can you find another car which has:

Either a 6 or an 8 cylinder motor which is as finely engineered as the Rickenbacker—one so simple, clean-cut, fool-proof, and compact—one so responsive, powerful and economical? In the matter of motor alone, Rickenbacker is years in advance of the industry.

Who introduced 4-wheel brakes in America? Rickenbacker. And this invention is as important to automobiles as the Westinghouse air-brake was to Pullman cars.

Who was the first to eliminate those annoying periods of vibration? Rickenbacker. "Tandem fly wheels" we call them, which means two balanced wheels—a light one on each end of the crank-shaft instead of only one.

Who made it easy for the ladies to steer an automobile? Rickenbacker. This is largely due to the ball-bearings, which first in this car, replaced the plain bronze type of bearing.

Comfort-providing "cradle" springs are another feature which were conceived by Rickenbacker's engineering staff.

Who first standardized on steel disc wheels? Rickenbacker. This means more resiliency and effects a great saving on tires.

The ingenious Rickenbacker air cleaner, makes for longer motor life and smoother running under all conditions.

These are but a few of the Rickenbacker refinements. All are incorporated in both the famous 6 and the vertical 8. All represent value—sheer, unqualified, absolute, down-right value.

And remember, that in price the Rickenbacker is just as attractive as in appearance. Come in today and see for yourself.

STATEMENT IN AUTO LICENSES

Harrisburg, Aug 29,Beginning September 2, Pennsylvania owners of motor cars will receive from the Automobile division of the State Highway department, Harrisburg, already-filled-in applications for 1925 licenses. It is only necessary for them to sign their names and return to the Division with the proper remittance

The State Highway department today issued the following statement relative to 1925 applications for automobile licenses:

Prior to the year 1925 it was the custom in Pennsylvania for motor vehicle owners to make application for registration of their motor vehicles before a notary public, justice of the peace, or other officer empowered to administer oaths. In many hundreds of thousands of cases applicants swore to the same facts year after year, paying a fee of at least 50 cents Although a fee was paid for filling out the application and administering the oath, thousands of applications were returned for correction because of oversight on the part of the person administering the oath or the applicants themselves.

"In order to eliminate the needless return of many applications, the application forms in the future will be made out in the Automobile division and mailed to the applicant for his signature and remittance. This mailing will begin Tuesday, Sept 2, and will continue until Oct. 15, at which time it is believed all motor vehicle owners in Pennsylvania will have received their form of application for the year 1925.

"Motorists are particularly warned to refrain from requesting application forms until Oct. 15. If by that time they have not received their form of application. they should communicate with the Automobile Division. giving their name and address, as well as their title number; and a duplicate form will immediately be sent to them.

"Another service the Department will render this year will be the forwarding a return addressed envelope in which the applicant should enclose his application and fee in the amount listed upon the application.

"The 1924 license tags are valid until midnight Dec. 31. 1924, while operators' licenses are valid until midnight Feb 28. 125. A similar system has been installed for operators' license and forms for renewal of such licenses will be forwarded from this Division, Jan. 1, 1925.

"If the operator's address has changed since he was issued 1924 license tags or certificate of title, the Automobile Division should be advised immediately in order that records may be changed and form forwarded with the proper address named thereon.

"Applications for 1925 license tags will be acted upon within 24 hours of their receipt by the Automobile division."
